Section 1: Meetings, Annual. There shall be an annual meeting of the general membership.

Section 2: Meetings, Quarterly. There shall be quarterly meeting of the general membership held on the third Tuesday of each quarter, unless otherwise rescheduled by the general membership at any regular meeting. In the event of a weather or emergency situation, the quarterly meeting may also be changed by the President with majority approval of the Board of Directors.

Section 3: Quorum. A quorum to conduct business shall be the members in good standing in attendance at the annual, quarterly or specially-called general meetings. Other than the election of the Board of Directors and approval of the budget at the annual meeting, if less than ten percent (10%) of the members in good standing are present and voting, any decision must be ratified by the Board of Directors prior to being enforced.

Article VI: Board of Directors

Section 1: Membership of the Board

Section 1.1: The Board of Directors shall consist of a minimum of seven (7) Directors who shall be elected from Volunteer Firefighter Members and Active Members in good standing, and shall manage, supervise, and direct the Organization. The total number of Board Members shall always be an odd number. Three of the Board of Directors shall be members of the Volunteer Firefighter Member category of membership. In addition, the Chief shall serve on the Board in an ex officio capacity, without vote, if a paid employee, and with vote, if a volunteer. The Chief is appointed by the Board of Directors.

Section 1.2: The number elected annually shall be determined by the number of expired terms.

Section 1.3 The candidates for the Board shall by nominated by the Nominating Committee from Active Members and Active Firefighter Members of the Organization who are in good standing. Nominations may also be made by the general membership.

Section 1.4: The candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected as Directors to fill the vacant positions.

Section 1.5: The Immediate Past President shall be an ex-officio director entitled to all privileges of directorship, except the right to vote or hold office.

Section 2: Term of Officer. Directors shall hold office for two years with elections held in August of each year. Directors shall assume office and become members of the Board at the close of the Organization’s annual meeting and no less than August 30. Their term ends two years later after the August annual meeting or when their respective successors shall be duly elected and installed. Directors other than officers may be added to the Board for an initial one year term in order to stagger the board.

Section 3: Powers. The Board shall establish Policies and Procedures and Standing Rules and shall conduct the business of the Organization as prescribed in the Article of Incorporation, the Bylaws, and the Standing Rules. The Board may transact business and vote by mail or electronic transmission as necessary.
Section 4: Resignation. Any member of the Board may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President. Such resignation shall take affect at the time specified therein, or, if no time is specified, at the time of acceptance thereof.

Section 5: Vacancy. Any vacancy occurring among the Directors elected in accordance with the Bylaws shall be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board to complete the expired time.

Section 6: Removal from Office. Subject to the notice requirements, a member of the Board may be removed from the Board as specified in these Bylaws.

Section 6.1: Move. If a member of the Board of Directors moves out of the South Gulf Fire District, the Board of Directors shall remove that director within thirty days and appoint a replacement.

Section 6.2: Cause. An elected or appointed officer may be removed from office for cause. Cause shall include, without limitation, failure to perform the duties of their office, failure without excuse to attend two consecutive meetings of the Board or the Executive Committee, or actions which may injure the Organization’s reputation or hamper its work.

Section 6.3: Process. Any member of the Board may file written charges against an elected or appointed officer with the Executive Committee, specifying the grounds for removal from office. The Executive Committee shall hold a hearing about the charges. The Executive Committee shall file thirty (30) days written notice, delivered in person or sent by certified or registered mail, to such officer, specifying the time and place of the hearing and the charges. The officer so charged is entitled to be present at the hearing, to be represented by counsel (who may or may not be a member) and to present his or her defense. The officer is not entitled to be present during the Executive Committee’s deliberations, or to vote. If the Executive committee determines, by a two thirds (2/3) vote of those present, that cause for remove exists, the officer shall be removed from office, effective immediately, upon notice to that officer.

Section 6.4: Appeal. The officer or person being charged may appeal the determination of the Executive Committee to the entire Board within fifteen (15) days of the decision of the Executive Committee. The Board shall hold an appeal hearing concerning the charges. The Board and the officer shall be given thirty (30) days notice by certified or registered mail of the appeal hearing, specifying time and place of the hearing and the matter which is the subject of the appeal. The officer is entitled to be present, to be represented by counsel, and to present a defense. The officer so charged is not entitled to be present during the Board’s deliberations or to vote.

Section 6.5: Final Decision. The Board shall determine, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present, whether the determination of the Executive Committee should be overturned or affirmed. Its decision shall be final and shall be effective immediately.

Section 7: Compensation. No members of the Board shall receive compensation for their services as members of the Board of the Organization.

Section 8: Board Meetings.

Section 8.1: Board Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of the Organization shall be held quarterly, at such time, day, and place as shall be designated by the Board for the purpose of transacting such business as may come before it. The Board may, by resolution, provide for the holding of additional regular meetings. Meetings by electronic communications shall be acceptable. Any member in good standing may attend Board meetings and may bring concerns or recommendations to the Board but may not vote.
Section 8.2: Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called at the discretion of the President, or by a majority of the voting directors then in office, to be held at such time, day, and place as shall be designated in the notice of the meeting.
